At Munshini, we understand the importance of perfect colour reproduction. To ensure your designs are accurately printed, we offer two comprehensive colour matching options:

Epson Colour Chart

Our standard Epson Colour Chart is calibrated to work seamlessly with our Epson printer. This ensures consistent, vibrant colours every time, providing you with the highest quality output.

PMS Colour Matching

For those who require precise Pantone colour matches, we provide access to a full PMS (Pantone Matching System) Colour Chart. We will match your design to the closest possible Pantone colour, ensuring that your branding and designs are faithfully represented.

Whether you are working with digital designs or print materials, our colour chart options guarantee accuracy and consistency for all your projects.

GAME SHIRTS

Perfect for teams, events, or corporate branding, we can help you showcase your sponsors and enhance your merchandise with direct-to-garment printing that lasts.

COLOURS AVAILABLE
We understand the importance of perfect colour reproduction. To ensure your designs are accurately printed, we offer two comprehensive colour matching options:

PRINTING OPTIONS
For sports teams, events, or personalized merchandise, we offer Direct-to-Garment (DTG) Printing for high-quality names and numbers on apparel.

NAMES & NUMBERS
(DTG) Printing technology ensures that logos, sponsor names, and any other intricate designs are printed with exceptional clarity and vibrant colours.

Tailored Branding Opportunities:

Custom sportswear allows businesses to incorporate their logos, colors, and brand identity directly onto high-quality apparel. This enhances brand recognition and helps create a professional, cohesive image across teams or customer-facing events.

Exclusive Product Lines:

Offering bespoke, trade-only sportswear products enables companies to differentiate themselves from competitors. Businesses can provide unique, high-quality apparel that isn't available to the general public, creating exclusivity for their customers or employees.
